Re: NLRB v. IMI South, LLC, CA Nos. 16-2600; 16-2665

Dear Counsel:

As discussed, attached is a form Stipulation to Dismiss. As you can see, this requires the signature of counsel for all parties. Once it has been fully agreed to and executed, please file the Stipulation with the Court by the date below in order to terminate the appeals voluntarily. Counsel who sign/approve the dismissal entry must have entered their Appearance of Counsel in these matters.

Further, pursuant to Rule 33 of the local Rules of the Sixth Circuit, the filing deadline for the submission of briefs in these matters is extended. Please note that the Clerk's Office will expect to receive for filing either the Stipulation to Dismiss or the Company's brief by November 22, 2017 and may dismiss the appeals for want of prosecution if one or the other is not received.

Either Petitioner is instructed to contact this Office before the due date if the above filing deadline cannot be met and additional time is needed.

To electronically file a stipulation to dismiss, select the category of "Motion/Stipulation" along with "stipulation" and click continue to move to the relief screen. You will see the Category and Description boxes with drop-down menus. Continue by selecting "Stipulation" from the Category box and "Dismiss Case-Mediation" from the Description box and hit apply.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,
/s/
Paul B. Calico
